W. P. WALTON.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—A new girl at Henry Brown's.
—Cal. Payne died Monday night of pneumonia.
—Father Gorey, of Nicholasville was here Wednesday with his parishoners.
—Brinkley & Catron are buying two cars of mules for the southern market.
—The furniture company shipped a car of their goods to Lebanon today.
—Largest assortment Best goods. Lowest prices. Where at? Logan Thompson's of course.
—Pat Welsh has his eye on his mother's cock and heating stove. Pocket money getting short.
—New town trustees have been appointed and the town government will soon be reorganized.
—J. E. Allen's house caught fire a few nights since from a candle left too near a papered wall.

—Not more than 400 cords of tan bark will be loaded at this siding during the present season.

—G. W. Hucksins brought the INTERIOR JOURNAL out early Tuesday morning to the subscribers here.

—Willie Jones and family move to Pittsburg this week and Will Davis' family goes to the house vacated by Mr. Jones.

—Has it ever been shown how Mr. Harris voted in the Senatorial race between Dr. J. J. Brown and John Bennett some six years ago?

—The farmers are getting along nicely with plowing. Wheat prospects are better than for some years. More grass seed is being sown than for several seasons past.

—Four men on horseback were bringing a little negro to town Thursday morning on the charge of stealing a pistol. Just before reaching here the little coon slid off the horse and made his escape to the woods amid a shower of bullets fired to scare him.

—Mr. Harrison Brannaman, of Wildie, says the people of his neighborhood are greatly worried over the reports lately sent out from that place of killings and general disorder. He wishes us to say that their little town is as quiet and orderly as any village in the mountains since some of the trifling bums have been forced to leave it.

—There seems to be some dissatisfaction about the manner in which the jail building contract was given. It appears that there is an impression out that one political party gets all the pie if there be any in it.
We suppose the opposite party would do the same if they had charge of the work
i. e., give their immediate friends the first slice.

—We are told that there are two creeks in this county that are known by the same name and it is said is often a source of trouble and annoyance to find which one is meant when they are spoken or written of.
Brush creek is the name and one is in the eastern part of the county and the other in the western portion. The silver discovery is said to be on the eastern stream of that name.

—The old iron and bone man is with us Tuesday evening during the absence of John Lunz's family their son, Mart, went into the kitchen and demolished the cooking stove and sold the wreck for 50 cents.
A new stove had to be purchased before supper could be prepared for the family and boarders. Most of the kitchens are now kept locked and a watch is set on every movable metal article.

—After keeping quiet for more than a year Jont Chamley, at Livingston, a few days since, filled up on pine top and with his 44 mountain howitzer was proceeding to square up an old grudge against Fred Fitz, a railroad carpenter. After knocking him on the head a few times and cuffing him around the Dutchman got his mad up and literally swept the floor with his antagonist. Chamley was glad to limp off and sit down for a needed rest.

—We understand Mr. D. N. Williams would decline the democratic nomination for the legislature, if offered to him, saying he was thankful to his many friends who had proposed his name for the nomination but that his business connections were such that he could not conveniently sever them to make the race. Why couldn't the name of M. N. Langford be suggested as a suitable candidate? He, we believe, could win the election if he should run.

—The potato club after guessing for some months at the number of beans in a bushel have ascertained by an actual count, by their secretary, Dave Poynter, to be ninety-six thousand. Treasurer Dick Welsh just got in his report on clover seed before the meeting adjourned (and says he had counted seventeen million and had more than a hundred thousand seed to spare. Twenty million timothy seed had been counted by Nate Evans when last heard from and he had more than a quart of the bushel left. Several more of the merchants will shortly take the seed counter's degree or advertise their business.

—Those old landmarks, Walk Newcomb and his fiddle, still remain on the corner and from morning till night one can hear one or both going.

—E. M. Denny has bought out the stock of merchandise at Level Green, owned by A. Catron. Mr. Catron will continue in his live stock trading.

—The Echo correspondent from this place has dropped his quill and picked up the checker board, and the click of the checkers can be heard from morn till night except when some one looses a move, when the dust that arises obscures all sight of the scramble that ensues.

—At this writing (12 o'clock Thursday) the flames have just been subdued at the residence of Harrison Carpenter, in the eastern part of town. The kitchen caught fire from the traditional defective flue, but little damage was done. The house occupied by G. W. Hucksins narrowly escaped fire from an overturned grease pot three days since.

—The number of fires discovered in their incipiency in this place within the last few days is wonderful. No less than six have occurred during the last two weeks. The last was at the Newcomb Hotel. In one of the rooms where a fire had been started it was found that some of the coal had dropped from the grate and a large hole had been burned in the floor when discovered and was in a fair way to consume the building.

—Fifteen pounds granulated sugar $1; 17 pounds best C sugar $1. Custom-house or any full weight that gives justice. A big line of clothing of best make and at prices that defy competition. My assortment of dry goods and notions is complete.
A real nice lot of ladies' trimmed hats and other millinery goods at prices that will astonish you. Hats and caps in abundance for men and boys. Chilled plows and farming implements; in fact a full and general assortment of everything kept in a general store can be found and at the very lowest prices in my house. Call and see. L. B.
Adams.

—At Ed H. Edwards' sale of farming stock, etc., at Moreland Station on Wednesday, March 30, he will also offer for sale a fine Ohio Valley Grand Square piano and a good family rockaway, of Mannwarren make, Danville. This is a good opportunity to get a fine piano and family vehicle.
Sale commences at 10 A. M.

—Everybody has heard the story of the witness to Lincoln's assassination who testified that Booth, after firing the fatal shot, exclaimed, "He's sick, send for M'Ginnia." Whether the story is true or not, we don't know, but the Courier-Journal compositor, Tuesday of last week, was guilty of equally as ludicrous a mistake in tackling a Latin legal phrase. A dispatch from Ft.
Wayne, Ind., giving an account of a suit filed in some court there contained the following sentence as it appeared in print:
"Suit is brought by the administrator, Debonis, now residing in Brooklyn."

What was meant, and doubtless written by the press correspondent, was, "Suit is brought by the administrator de bonis non residing in Brooklyn," the Latin words meaning "of the goods not yet administered on." The intelligent compositor, however, must have thought de bonis a man and read non, now. Our professional readers will especially appreciate and enjoy the mistake. —[Glasgow Times]

—More than 30 years ago a young girl was in the act of placing a pitcher on a post which stands near the South Carolina railroad, five miles from Aiken, when she was struck dead by lightning. Ever since this tragic occurrence the pitcher has remained on the post safe by superstition from the touch of negroes, who believe that the arm which touches it will be paralyzed. Storms and cyclones and earthquakes have not displaced it, although the post which holds it is fast crumbling to decay.

—It is related that a woman of Loganport thought that she saw bear tracks in the snow under her hired girl's window, and not wishing to alarm the family, set a big steel trap there without saying anything to any one. She had hardly retired for the night when she was startled by a series of vigorous yells, and investigation found her bed band hopping around on one leg with the bear trap hanging to the other.

—The Court of Appeals has recently rendered a decision of local interest in regard to the trial in all misdemeanor offenses by town authorities. The court decided that the trial and conviction of a party violating any town ordinance was not a bar to his indictment and punishment by the circuit court. That where a person violated both the town and the State law he was guilty of two offenses and could be punished for both.

—Maine has again changed her policy regarding murderers. In 1876 capital punishment was abolished. In 1883 the death penalty was restored. The present legislature, by large majorities in each branch, has again abolished it. The advocates of the change claim that during the seven years when there was no death penalty only 24 murders were committed in the State, while in the four years since it was restored there have been no less than 37. —[New York Evening Post]

GARRARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT.

Lancaster.

—Mr. J. W. Bryan, candidate for Lt.
Governor, was in town Tuesday getting acquainted with our people.

—The town was almost depopulated this morning, nearly everybody having been summoned as jurors in the Smith case at Stanford.

—Postmaster Peacock asks us to state that hereafter the postoffice will be opened at 7 A. M. and closed at 7 P. M. Hours for money order business 8 A. M. to 4 P. M.

—Wm. and Humphrey Best, the young men who participated in the Paint Lick shooting affair a few weeks ago, have left for parts unknown. They were each under a bond of $250 for the part they took in the Paint Lick affair.

—At the special term of the Garrard circuit court last week Gen. Landrum was sworn in as special judge, Judge Morrow being unable to attend. Louis Landrum was sworn in as an attorney. Margaret Pettus was adjudged an idiot and the mother of John W. Harris was allowed her claim to a homestead.

—The Indian show is furnishing the chief topic of conversation just now. They give a performance each evening and the novelty and excellence of the show together with the small price of admission charged, generally attracts a large audience.

—The brass band arrived Wednesday night and will remain with them while here.
Memoriam is the special feature of the performances this week and is very amusing.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Abolish the laws on the Kentucky statute books which say that a man should be hanged for murder. Jurors will not observe it, notwithstanding their oath, and it is of no use. —[Louisville Commercial]

Now that the prohibition party in Kentucky has become a political organization with a single idea, thousands of democrats who would be glad to see temperance principles prevail, unwilling to sever past political affiliations, will stand aloof from the new party. —[Georgetown Times]

Barring the President's deliberation in removing republicans from office who should long since have been shown the door, he has given the country an administration surprisingly able and unimpeachably honest, and deserves, as he will secure, a hearty and complete endorsement from the national convention in 1888. —[Frankfort Capital]

The prohibitionists of Warren county have decided among themselves that they have no connection with the State Prohibition party, and that they will not affiliate with it. They are a body of prohibition-ists and not a party. They propose to exert themselves in favor of local temperance measures and will let general or State prohibition take care of itself. —[Bowling Green Times]

Five of the seven prohibition State candidates are, or were, democrats. The strength of the prohibitionists will be drawn in about similar proportion from democracy and republicanism. There is no question as to prohibition being much more disaster-ous to the former than to the latter. Every democratic vote given to prohibition is thrown away in a hopeless cause and increases the chances of a republican success.
—[Glasgow News]

We beg pardon of Gov. Knott, and if he is not inclined to grant it, we will wait until he is absent and apply to Lieut. Gov-nor Hindman. Last week we jumped on Governor Knott with both feet, for pardoning before trial a man in this city, who was indicted in 20 cases for selling liquor without license. That was a mistake. Gov-nor Knott is not guilty. It was Lieutenant Governor Hindman who granted the pardon in the absence of the Governor. — [Mt. Sterling Sentinel]

Bruce Champ prints this silly and unreasonable paragraph: We have an intimation from those who pretend to know, that Mr. Harris will be withdrawn and Col. Holt pitted against Gen. Buckner.
Mr. Harris' Louisville friends have all dropped him like a viper and are undoing what little they had done for him. They were merely playing for his vote in the Senate to put through some dirty scheme. Sharp fellows, those Louisville schemers!

There are numerous quaint superstitions connected with cats:
"Blood from a black cat's tail will cure fire."
"To cure a felon, hold the finger affected in a cat's ear a quarter of an hour each day."
"If a man swallow two or three cat's hairs they will cause him to faint."
"If one dreams of fighting with a cat that scratches him he will be sick or in affliction."
"The belief that cats 'suck the breath' of infants is nothing but a 'superstition,' the formation of a cat's mouth being such that the thing is an utter impossibility."

If all the liquor shops in the country were closed forever we should have taxes greatly reduced, labor more fully rewarded, and withal an era of peace suggestive of the millennium. —[Husbandman]

Mr. William Dodge, a son, who has been named Grover Cleveland.

—This cold weather is bad on our early gardens and little chickens. Mrs. McAtis-ter, Mrs. Sigler, Mrs. Doores, the Misses Stuart and others have from 50 to 75 chickens. We have already been invited to eat fried chicken at an early date with several friends.

—We have received the first issue of the Comberland Valley News, edited at Barbourville by Robert L. Davis, on March 18, and judging from this, it is likely to be a very interesting and creditable paper. Mr.
Davis has kindly offered to send us each issue, for which he will please accept our thanks.

—Our town will be on a boom in the millinery line this season, as there will be four millinery stores here. They will be under the management of Mrs. E. W.
Jones, Mrs. Walter Edmiston, Mrs. W. O.
Hansford and Mrs. Scott Farris and Misses Alice and Pauline Hardin.

—Mr. Morris Harris sent to his sister, Miss Hettie, from Charleston, S. C., a box containing a sea biscuit, a sea weed and a number of pretty and curious shells, gathered from off the beach. The sea biscuit is a perfect curiosity and has on it a natural design, which looks like some hand-painted work.

—Miss Lottie Dillion is confined to her bed with an attack of pneumonia. Captain T. G. Moore is quite ill; Dr. Carpenter was up to see him Tuesday. Little Jennie Evans, who has been sick all winter, is worse at this writing and Dr. Carpenter fears she will be paralyzed. Miss Edna Smith, Mrs.
D. B. Edmiston and Miss Lura Doores are on the sick list.

—Miss Sabra Hays, of Stanford, is visiting Miss Louana James. Miss Maggie Mc-Roberts, of Danville, is the guest of Mr.
William Garnett. The many friends of Mr.
W. P. Tatem and family welcome them back to their old home. Mrs. Margaret Lasley is visiting her son, Mr. Lucien Las-
ley. Mr. John A. Haldeman, of Louisville, is in town this week. One of our prettiest girls is the attraction here for him.

GUSIE WAS SO SUPERSTITIOUS.—"You know," she said, "that Pa couldn't bear Gusie. He said that Gus was really no good whatever; that he wouldn't work and didn't know anything beyond cigarettes. Pa was just awfully down on him, and the last time Gus came to see me Pa heard him in the parlor and came out with a rush, and before Gus could get down the front steps Pa kicked him real hard three times with his left foot. Pa has been lame ever since, and I don't care if he is. I know Gus felt real hurt about it. He said no man ever kicked him with his left foot before, and that it was real bad luck. I've tried a hundred times to get him to come and see me again, but he won't. "Why not?" "Oh, he is so superstitious." —[Washington Republic]

There is not a city of any magnitude in the country in which the saloons, the rum power, have not endeavored to control the city government. If they can not control it directly, by force of numbers, they do it by fear. They make men afraid to take active measures against them, if they can not control them as active partisans. The saloon wants the earth and already imagines that it is disposed thereof by the decent classes of society. It must be disabused of this idea. It must be shown that it lives by suffrage, where it does exist, and not by right. It is an insolent, overbearing, despotic tyrant, desperately endeavoring to erect an empire of rum on the ruins of all that is good and pure. —[Toledo Blade]

A number of Boston capitalists are building a railway car of steel. Instead of forming their car by the current square-box pattern, they will use as far as possible, a curved design. Hot-air pipes will heat the car and a compressing platform will render telescoping an impossibility. The general adoption of such a car would be a most desirable result. —[Boston Journal]

PIANOS AND ORGANS

W. P. WALTON.

LOUISVILLE juries evidently do not believe that the cowards who murder defenseless women do so "feloniously" enough to warrant the death penalty therefor. Last week the fiend, Kaelin, who in cold blood murdered his wife, was let off with a life sentence, and Tuesday George Mann, who stabbed his paramour, Alice Mann, to death, also had his miserable life spared. But perhaps it is better so. The court of appeals may let the sentence stand. They would surely find some flimsy technicality to reverse on if the necks of the condemned were in danger. If that court keeps on as it has we shall have to hire that Indianapolis editor to come over and use the stilted language towards it that it recently used in speaking of the same court in Indiana.

COL. E. POLK JOHNSON has returned from a ten days' southern trip and being asked by a Times man in regard to the charge that he wrote Buckner's now celebrated speech, said he was sorry that he could not plead guilty to it as he would be proud to father such a production. He admitted however that the general gave him the speech in manuscript and asked him to read it over and correct any slip of the pen that he may have made. He did so and found but few corrections necessary. He further says that the general is as handy with a pen as he is with a sword and the charge that he can't write his own speeches is too puerile to require refutation.

SHERMAN has returned from Cuba and is making his second "triumphal" tour of the South. At At Birmingham he stopped at the Florence Hotel, where a delegation of colored men made an effort to call upon him, but were refused admission, whereupon the Senator paid his bill and took quarters at another hotel. This gives Murat Halstead, the bloody shirt screecher, a chance to shoot off his mouth again and he does so in a column of double leaded matter, with all the vehemence and spite of a man who has always fought his battles on paper.

THE other day the Ohio & Mississippi railway company notified the members of the Illinois Legislature that under the Interstate commerce bill it was compelled to withdraw all outstanding passes and cease to issue any in the future. The same day the notification was received a member offered a bill to reduce the fare on railroads from three to two cents. There may be no spite in this, but it looks very much so to a man up a tree. As we have before remarked a legislator shorn of his free pass is a very small individual indeed.

SENATOR JAMES W. BRYAN, of Covington, candidate for lieutenant governor, was here Tuesday. He is a brilliant young man, a pleasing speaker and ought to strike out for something better. Falcon says that all a lieutenant governor has to do is to say nothing and look pretty like Jim Hindman and Jim Cantrell. We don't know that he will fill the bill so far as keeping his mouth closed is concerned, but if personal pulchritude is to be considered in the selection, Senator Bryan is worthy and well qualified.

THE meanest anti-prohibitionist we have heard of is the scamp who set fire to the Methodist church at Holly, Mich., where the prohibitionists were holding a meeting and came near burning the whole ship's crew to death. He has not been captured, but it would not be too severe to lock him in the same building, set it afire and roast him to cinders.

THE Louisville Times, a red hot Buckner organ, claims that the general has 350 votes certain and perhaps enough to nominate him on the first ballot. Buckner may be nominated by the convention, but we will bet our pile against Emmett Logan's brown stone front that it won't be on the first, nor even on the third ballot.

THERE is a decided boom in real estate in Louisville. Transfers to the amount of $150,000 were entered last week and the demand for property is increasing daily. Louisville is destined to be a great city and the man who puts up his money on her is surer of a good thing than in any of the western cities.

JUDGES Fox explains. He did buy three bottles of whiskey, but they were for another man and he did not pay for them because he forgot it. These great men always have bad memories, but the understanding how to get out when seemingly cornered.

SOULE SMITH, Esq., the Falcon of the Louisville Times, makes so nice a reference to us that we ask his pardon for giving currency to French Tipton's charge that his real name is Job. We are sure now that the "Thin Column" man prevaricated.

PENSIONERS never resign and seldom die. One old fellow has been drawing a stipend from the government for the loss of an arm ever since 1815, just 72 years, and is likely to keep it up for several moons yet.

OLD Cerro Gordo is left again. The President didn't want him for a commissioner, but he can't keep him from being the first to hand to draw his Mexican pension money.

SWEARING that he would never accept, Mayor Harrison accepted a renomination for the office he has held with so much enthusiasm to the Chicagoans.

THE appointments of the Interstate Commissioners are somewhat disappointing. The bill required that three of them should be democrats and two republicans, but there was no need for the President to give the longest term to a republican and the shortest to a democrat. Judge Cooley, who goes in for six years, is a good man and a fine lawyer, but it would have been more natural like for a good democrat to have given Morrison, for instance, the longest term. Morrison is too well known to need any introduction. He has been the leader in the House of Representatives for two or more terms and he is a capable and excellent man. Gen. Bragg is a nephew of the late Braxton Bragg, is a good lawyer and has been president of the Alabama State Railroad Commission. Walker, the Vermont republican, was a law pupil of Senator Edmunds, who got him the appointment, and has studied railroad matters extensively. Mr. Schoonmaker has been Senator and Attorney General of his native State of New York and the fact that he was a close and valued friend of Gov. Tilden is assurance enough that he is a good man. On the whole the commission is fairly up to expectations.

AN Ohio woman is a bad individual to monkey with. The husband of one of them at Newark offended her and she let go a pan of boiling water into his face and eyes, putting out the latter and after two days of great agony he died.

THE 148th call for the redemption of bonds has been issued by the acting Secretary of the Treasury. It is for $10,000,000 three per cent, and interest will cease on them May 1.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

—Lexington has a democratic postmaster for the first time for 20 years.

—The President has appointed Emory B. Sellers United States District Attorney for Indiana.

—The prohibitionists have nominated a man named Neale for the Legislature in Scott county.

—A powder factory near Neganee, Wis., exploded, killing two men and blowing the building to atoms.

—Will Hamilton, Gen. Williams' stepson, has declined to become a candidate for lieutenant governor.

—The new Congressional appointment of Pennsylvania makes 22 republican and 6 democratic districts.

—The snow is 12 to 15 inches deep in Central New York and in the anthracite coal regions of Pennsylvania.

—Walter Lawton, of the firm of Lawton Brothers, New York, has absconded with nearly a million of other people's money.

—The Episcopal church at Ashland is compelled to give up its house of worship and it will be occupied as a business house.

—The Chautauque fire burned out Simpson and Summerfield avenues and part of Palestine avenue—over 60 cottages in all.

—The Missouri legislature, following close upon that of Tennessee, defeated the bill regulating railroads within the State.

—A couple named Blodgett, at Gilroy, California, have been married 79 years. The husband is 99 years old and his wife 97.

—A South Carolina mother has a record of 17 children in nine years. The first was a solitary voyager; the others came in pairs.

—A heavy frost is reported throughout the northern and middle parts of Florida, and in South Carolina, injuring the fruits badly.

—Garrett cleared $200,000 out of the Sully syndicate failure. The Ives-Slaynor syndicate option is to remain open until April 1.

—Henry Hulet, of Lexington, attempted to poison himself because his nine children were down with the measles and were in poverty.

—A man named Loth at Richmond, Va., cowhided Dr. Gardner because he refused to sign a paper retracting charges of drunkenness against Loth's dead wife.

—Gov. Knott has appointed James W. Roberts, of Henry county, to represent the 7th district on the State Board of Equalization in place of J. W. Chinn, resigned.

—Emperor William, of Germany, was ninety years old Tuesday, the event being celebrated with much enthusiasm throughout the great empire over which he rules.

—The Pennsylvania railroad company owns 10,105 locomotives and cars of various kinds, which if placed upon a straight track would make a train 605 miles long.

—Dr. Sowers, a prominent Washington physician, says Cleveland is becoming alarmingly fat and unless there is a change in his mode of living, he will never finish his term.

—It is estimated that liquor costs the people of this country $700,000,000; tobacco $255,500,000; sugar $187,000,000; coffee, tea, cocoa $130,000,000; schools $110,000,000 annually.

—A bigamy case tried in Cincinnati, discloses the fact that the law as to slave marriages in Kentucky is that such marriages are void unless ratified after the participants had obtained their freedom.

—At Whitebread Hill, I. T., a man named Foster was shooting at a mouse, when a ball struck a can of powder, exploding it and killing his two children and seriously injuring himself and wife.

—The New Jersey Court of Pardons has commuted the death sentence of Janitor Titus, who was to be hanged for the murder of Tillie Smith, to imprisonment for life. He was convicted on circumstantial evidence for killing a young girl.

—Hon. Martin V. Montgomery, who recently resigned the commission of justice, is said to be booked to succeed Justice McArthur on the bench of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. He is a Michigan man and an able lawyer.

—Charles Mosely, proprietor of the Sindle House, Gallatin, has shipped with his wife's sister, Miss Mollie Phillips.

—The druggists of Crawford county, Kas., met and determined not to take out any license under the new Murray prohibition law.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Stone Turner, of Madison county, wife of the late Squire Turner, of Richmond, died yesterday, aged 88 years.—[Herald.]

—The New Jersey House of Representatives unanimously passed a resolution giving women the right to vote for school trustees in school districts.

—Jefferson Bowling, who was to be hanged March 25, at Columbus, Ohio, has been granted a respite to June 24, making the third that he has received.

—John Koepper, a native of Austria, died in Luzerne county, Pa., aged 108 years. He fought in the battles of his country against Napoleon in the wars of 1797 and 1805.

—J. B. Simmons, proprietor of a country store near Russellville, Kentucky, was murdered by unknown parties Tuesday night and the cash drawer of his small establishment robbed.

—Both houses of the Virginia General Assembly passed a bill legalizing $40,000,000 of capital stock of the Richmond and West Point Terminal Company, heretofore issued by said company.

—Annie Thomas, of Montgomery, gave birth to an illegitimate child at Lexington, whither she had gone to hide her shame. She says that Robert Goodpaster, a "nice" young man, seduced her.

—The wholesale notion house of Rothschild & Co., of New York, has failed. Liabilities $100,000. Creditors allege intent to defraud. Rothschild was formerly in the lace business in Cincinnati.

—Chattanooga is on a terrible boom, and a company with a capital of $12,000,000 has been organized to develop the mineral resources of 25,000 acres of land situated on the Tennessee river opposite the city.

—A special from Bessemer, Michigan, states that a boarding-house, owned by the Colby Iron Company, was burned. The bodies of ten persons burned to death have been taken out. Several others who were burned will die.

—An angel has caught up a negro girl at the foot of Kenesaw mountain, Ga., and lifted her to the seventh heaven, where it was revealed to her that an earthquake and whirlwind will wipe out the real estate boom in the town of Calhoun on the first Saturday in next December.—[Times.]

—A midget girl baby has been born to the wife of Joseph Ockerman, near Carlisle. It is seven days old, weighs only 24 ounces, with a head not as large as a hen egg. The child is an indigo blue and is covered with short black hair from head to foot. Crowds of people go to see it daily.

—Dr. Randall, of Hastings, Neb., was arraigned in court for committing a rape on a young girl, under his treatment as a physician, when her brother deliberately walked up and shot him to death. No effort was made to arrest him and it seems that none will be, as everybody considers his deed a righteous act.

—W. A. Royall, a leading lawyer of Richmond, Va., counsel for the English council of foreign bondholders, and representing their affairs in connection with Virginia's debt, was convicted at Richmond in the Hustings Court of intimidating the grand jury of that court and fined $150, refusing to pay which he was sent to jail.

—The President has appointed the Interstate commissioners at last. They are Thomas M. Cooley, of Michigan, for the term of six years; William R. Morrison, of Illinois, for five years; Augustus Schoonmaker, of New York, for four years; Aldace F. Walker, of Vermont, for three years and Walter L. Bragg, of Alabama, for two years.

—Ira Shafer, a prominent criminal lawyer of New York, who is conducting the defense of boodle alderman Cleary, was caricatured in Sunday's World. In court next day Shafer uttered a frantic tirade against the press, and alluding to Pulitzer, of the World, said: "The first time I meet that Hungarian Jew I'll kill him." Shafer grew so violent he was called to order by the court.

—The horrible murder of the Sells family at Erie, Kan., which occurred about a year ago, has been made clear. Willie Sells, a sixteen year-old, who is about to be hung, has confessed. He says his brother Watty struck his father with a hatchet; that that made Willie mad, and he struck Watty down, then killed his mother and his sister. He doesn't know why he killed the latter two. He then cut their throats for fear they might come to life and tell on him.

—The Manitoba railroad has made a contract for the construction of 670 miles of road to be completed by the 23d of November. In order that this may be accomplished, the services of more than 5,000 graders will be required and in laying the rails the contractors propose to use a steam track-laying machine and employ three separate crews of men, who will work eight hours each day, using electric lights at night, which, it is expected, will enable them to complete five miles a day.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Born, to the wife of William Harkleroads, a girl.

—The meeting of Rev. Green Clay Smith continues with unabated interest.

—The small-pox at East Bernstadt proves to be half measles and half scar.

—Granville P. Johnson, deputy jailer, boasts the finest case of mumps in town. Pit Reid comes in for second honors.

—Talk is indulged in of building a Baptist church at this place. We hope to see the matter vigorously pushed; not the talk, but the building.

—The mention of the name of David N. Williams in connection with legislative honors creates wide spread enthusiasm in this county. What does the gentleman himself say?

—There may be plenty of news both of interest and importance right here under my nose. I have not been on the streets for a week. This by way of apology for my ever dull letters.

—Lee Ballard, whose killing was reported in my last, is not dead, but is suffering from a fractured skull from a sledge hammer in the hands of Vol Philpot.

—Robert Craft was up from Pittsburgh Tuesday and returned Wednesday. W. B. Catching left Monday for Northern States to look after his large star route interests. Uncle Peter Felton and Willis Pearl are added to our sick list. Moses Parsley, who suffered a broken collar bone several weeks ago, was well enough to be in town on Tuesday.

—W. H. Carrier distanced all competitors on the messenger line between the post office and railway station, receiving the award at $160 per annum. His term begins April 1, but Mr. Jones, the present contractor, has turned his contract over to him for the remainder of his term and Mr. Carrier is now carrier in fact as well as—etc.

—The contractors on the Cumberland Valley Railroad are moving briskly on with their work along the entire line from Woodbine to Pinerville and soon the grand hills on either side of this magnificent valley will reverberate with the locomotive's shrill whistle; and somewhere in this same valley, whose unsurpassed resources have so long lain dormant, will spring up a city that will put Birmingham to the blush and outstride Pittsburgh in industrial interests. Just where this metropolis of the Western world will be situated can not be now foretold, but she's sure to come.

—And now "Mister Printer," didn't you make me give Laurel a big send-off? You say Mr. Brown has "12 or 15 barrels of corn." I say he has 1,200 or 1,500 bushels, or from 240 to 300 barrels. He's got the corn, too, every ear of it, and don't you give old Laurel out and don't you make any more such mistakes as that for me, either, d'ye hear? [Bag your pardon, dear brother, but you didn't say any such thing. What you did say was "12 of 15 bushels," but it sounded so preposterous that it was changed to barrels to help the matter some. The copy was preserved and can be produced if you cannot take the word of that much-maligned and long-suffering individual, the poor printer.]

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—The marriage of Mr. John O'Conner Peed to Miss Lizzie B. Harnes, daughter of Mr. W. A. Harnes, is announced for this evening (Thursday).

—The planing mill company continue to improve their property on Main street. They are now putting up a brick office for a coal yard to be conducted by Wm. King.

—On Saturday, April 21, John M. Higginbotham, trustee for Louis Rout, will sell some real and personal property belonging to the latter and situated in this county.

—The rite of circumcision has been performed on the infant son of Mr. Louis Cohn by a Jewish Rabbi from Cincinnati, and the name "Walter" has likewise been given to him.

—Mr. Warren G. Richards, the famous "Impersonator," will give an entertainment Monday night at the Opera House for the benefit of the Knights of Pythias Lodge of this place.

—Fred Hindman's incubator is beginning to demonstrate that it understands its business. At this hour, 9 1/2 A. M., several shells have been broken and the chicks have begun to chirp. By to-morrow several dozen will have entered this world of sorrow.

—Mrs. Theodore Linney is dangerously ill. G. D. Masonheimer has started a shoe-maker shop near Floyd's mill on Dix river. William Silliman has moved into the property on Cassell street, recently purchased by Joe Hass from M. E. Patton, of Nicholasville.

—There was considerable fun on Wednesday owing to the failure of an agent of a fire extinguisher to put out a fire he had started to show off his apparatus. He simply undertook more than his machine was intended to accomplish. Had the fire been indoors it could have been easily extinguished.

A steam-heating system was tested on the Maine Central road recently. In a train of seven cars the last car was warmed as satisfactorily as the first and the inspecting officer of the company declared that a train of 15 cars could be heated as easily as one of seven. Even on a rising grade of 80 feet to the mile the engine showed no loss of power. The system is cheaper than stove heating on that road by at least $50 a year for each car, aside from the seating space gained in each car.

Pulverized borax is one of the simplest and most effective of roach exterminators. There is something peculiar either in the smell or touch of borax which is certain death to roaches. It has no poisonous effects for human beings. The borax should be persistently sprinkled around the infested places. Poke root boiled in water until a strong tea is made and this mixed with molasses and spread in plates in the kitchen is also said to be effectual.

—Six of the attempted assassins of the Carr were arrested Sunday and hung Monday at St. Petersburg.

—The Louisville Commercial has advice from 47 counties in the State on the Senatorial race. Twenty-eight of these votes are put down for Senator Back, 13 for Standiford, 10 for Carlisle and the rest are scattering.

THE vernal equinox is past with its week of bad weather and sunshine again gladdens the land.

A LITTLE girl arrived in a family here this week, just nineteen years since there was a baby in it before.

MAK HUFFMAN'S new hearse is one of the handsomest things of the kind we have ever seen. It arrived yesterday.

It is stated that Dr. J. F. Pettus, of the East End, would make the race for representative. The doctor is a sound and sensible man and would make a most acceptable candidate.

DEATH.—A telegram was received Tuesday from Monterey, which told of the death of little Willard, the bright two-year-old daughter of Mrs. Hattie Combs, who visited Mrs. T. R. Walton last summer.

KILLED.—Mr. J. B. Fish tells us that he has heard since he left his home in Bell county that a difficulty occurred between Lee Turner and General Sowder, in which Turner was shot dead. Old feud, as usual.

BIG TRADE.—Mr. F. M. Ware has bought of D. S. Jones & Son, their store house and entire stock of goods at McKinney and will combine his old stock with that purchased, continuing the business at their stand. Mr. Jones will go to Texas to live.

At a special term of the county court, F. M. Yowell qualified as administrator of Adam Carpenter and T. J. Robinson as administrator with the will annexed of Pendleton Jenkins, the gentlemen named in the will as executors, Messrs. Henry and Thomas Dunn, failing to qualify. The personality of both estates is advertised in this issue.

SANGUINE.—Judge R. J. Breckinridge, attending court here this week, was asked in regard to his prospects for receiving the democratic nomination for the legislature from Boyle. "I think," said he, "they are first class, though all the alleged light and knowledge, the banks and most of the moneyed men are against me. The rural districts are for me, however, and I base my assurance of success on them."

OUR good friend, Equire J. H. Eason, formerly of this county, writes us to change the address of his paper from Ottawa to Homewood, Kansas, and encloses ten cents to pay us for the trouble. That beats anything for cleverness we have ever seen, but of course we returned the money. And this gives us occasion to say that it is no trouble and no expense for us to change an address of a subscriber. It is all the same to us whether the paper goes to one post-office or another.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.—Detective T. P. Brown lodged in jail here Wednesday night, Everett Young, of the Green River section of this county, charged with murder and grand larceny. The story is that Young and four others murdered and robbed at Meridian, Miss., one Peter Dillion, of Covington, Ky. Dillion was in the government employ and had been transferred to Jackson, whether he was en route. At Meridian, while waiting for his train, he got to drinking and finally brought up in a house of ill fame, where he met, it is charged, Young and four other men, who knocked him in the head and taking his body out to the fair grounds stole all his clothing and other valuables and fled. Young left this county with DeHaven's circus last year and the fact that he had some of the dead man's clothes in his possession seems to make a pretty strong case against him. Three others of the men were already in jail and the detective thinks that he will have the fifth before the week is out. A requisition will be obtained and Young will be taken to the scene of the killing for trial. He asserts his innocence, of course, but that remains to be seen.

CIRCUIT COURT.—In the case against R. C. Egleman for carrying concealed weapons the jury hung and also in the case against James Adams for the same offense. The case against Smith Bingham was continued. Battle Buford, a colored woman of Stanford, charged with keeping a disorderly house was acquitted. W. L. McCarty, whiskey selling, was also acquitted. Will Huff Harrie, for assaulting old man Zuck Padgett, was fined $50; George Alford for a breach of the peace in firing his pistol and otherwise misbehaving on the pike in the presence of the daughters of J. H. Minx was fined the same amount; W. A. Carson, for selling minors liquor, was acquitted; case against L. & N. railroad for nuisance stricken from the docked; Joe Cain, for unlawful shooting, fined $10; Charles Hale, carrying concealed weapons, fined $10 and sentenced to 10 days in jail; Thomas Carson, same charge, dismissed. Several Crab Orchard parties, never before indicted, were fined $10 each for playing a little game of poker for fun. This completed the work of Tuesday.

The trial of Wallace Carpenter, for the murder of his father, was set for the 16th day of the term, April 7th. John W. Bright is acting as deputy sheriff and makes a good officer.

Wednesday's business began with the trial of Will Adams for violating the whiskey laws. The jury found him not guilty. Jim Helm, a negro boy, charged with shooting another at Hustonville, was fined $40 and given ten days in jail; Jack Quinlin, malicious shooting, jury hung. The case of Martin Smith, for the murder of O. Smith last fall, was then called and after a fruitless effort by the defense to continue the selection of a jury began. The regular panels were exhausted and but one juror obtained, Mr. A. C. Robinson. Some 50 or more bystanders were examined, but not another being secured, the judge ordered the sheriff to go to Garrard and summon 50 men to report yesterday morning. It will be remembered that Mart shot his victim Nov court day on Main street in Stanford when it was full of people and the subsequent trial for bail and the newspaper reports gave the case great notoriety, which accounts for the failure to obtain a jury at home.

The gentlemen summoned were on time and by 9:45 yesterday the panel was complete after perhaps 25 were examined. The remaining 11 jurors are Howard Hardin, James Ward, James Walker, Doc Walker, W. M. Kirby, R. H. Bateson, Jacob Joseph, J. S. Greenleaf and J. B. Johnston. The State is represented by her attorney, Wm. Herndon and Messrs. R. C. Warren and Robert Harding and the defense by Messrs. W. O. Bradley, W. H. Miller and J. E. Paxton.

Judge Morrow kindly offered us the facility for taking down the testimony in the Smith case, but we had given it before when he made application for bail and thought it useless.

There are twenty odd witnesses on each side in the Smith case, making over 50 in all, and it is thought that with the speeches the case will occupy at least all of today.

The Commonwealth got through with its testimony in chief at 4 yesterday, but it has a good many witnesses in reserve to be called up hereafter. A session of the court was held last night.

The trial of L. B. Carter was set for yesterday, but Judge Morrow fearing that the Smith case would last all the week telegraphed to Mr. Vernon for the witnesses not to come, thereby saving the Commonwealth a considerable sum. The case is now set for Tuesday at 2 o'clock.

Miss Belle Hughes' case against Dr. Carpenter for malpractice is set for the 13th day of the term, Monday week.

B. G. Alford was appointed trustee of the jury fund in the place of Dale Wolford, "resigned," and he qualified with his father, J. R. Alford, as security.

MARRIAGES.

—John Brock, an infant of 18, and Miss Mary Adams, another of 17, were made husband and wife on the 24th.

—Jerry M. Hogue, of Casey, obtained license yesterday to marry Miss Mary Lucinda Smith, of this county on the 31st.

—George W. Nokes, a widower, and Miss Samantha Jane Dalaney, a maiden many years his junior, were married yesterday.

—R. E. Ryan, a well-known Louisville newspaper man, and Miss Emma Cole were married by Rev. H. A. Tupper a few days ago.

—On the 23d, Squire L. Phillips and Miss Mary Ann Lanhan were united in matrimony. The groom has not reached his majority by a year or two and he is not a magistrate as his name would indicate.

RELIGIOUS.

—Sam Jones begins in Cincinnati again next Sunday.

—Every one of the 70 boarders at the Millersburg Female College, not previously members of the church, joined during the recent revival there.

—St. Stephens' Catholic Church, New York, was entered by thieves, who carried off gold and silver vessels and plate valued at several thousand dollars.

—Rev. S. F. Wishard will preach at Bright's School house to-morrow, Saturday night, instead of Sunday as stated. Rev. Yancey will preach at the same place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

—Sacramental service at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath. Dr. Miles Saunders, of Springfield, will preach to-night, to-morrow at 11 A. M. and 7:15 P. M., and on Sabbath at same hours.

—Elder R. A. Hopper has been conducting at Hampton, Florida, a series of meetings, attended with a number of conversions. He has accepted a call to take charge of a church at Baldwin, Miss., and will enter upon his duties at once.—[Lebanon Standard.]

—The religious meetings at Winchester closed Friday night at the Christian church with 33 additions, making with the 21 they obtained from Brother Morrison's meetings 54. This makes the list of additions to the different churches of Winchester over 210 since Brother Morrison's meeting commenced. Brother Morrison is now holding a meeting here and has created great interest already.—[Paris Kentuckian.]

—FOR SALE.—A splendid milk cow and a young calf. Terms reasonable. R. E. Barrow, Stanford.

—The largest cotton sale in the history of Texas, if not of the entire South, occurred at Galveston Wednesday—6,500 bales.

—It is estimated that there are about 517,000 head of sheep in the world, of these about 45,000 are in the United States.

—Lee, Hudson & Co. bought in Washington and Marion counties last week 18 broke mules at prices ranging from $100 to $175 per head.—[Danville Advocate.]

—Joseph Carter, of Rocklestown, New Jersey, recently butchered 30 remarkably fine hogs. The lightest weighed 695 pounds and the heaviest 875; the total weight was 21,384 pounds.

—At Mt. Sterling Scoggin Bros. bought for the government, 17 horses at $90 to $135 per head. Robert Powers, of Richmond, Va., bought a car load of mules which cost him from $115 to $145 per head.

—C. B. Reid and D. C. Allen were up from Dunnville, Casey county, yesterday, where they are feeding 76 cattle and 160 hogs. They bought the hogs at 31 cents and sold some of them recently at 5 cents. The corn they use cost them $1.50 per barrel and they bought 1,000 barrels.

—A farm of 173 acres, 7 miles from Georgetown rented at $750. At a sale in same section yearling heifers sold at $28 per head, calves $21.75; stock hogs $5 per cwt; 32 sheep $5.40 per head; corn $2.10 per barrel; oats 20 cents per dozen; bacon 6 1/2 per pound.

—Leonidas Duvall, of Richmond, Mo., bought of W. J. & J. S. Collins, 2 aged jacks at $1,000 each and 4 yearlings and 1 colt at an average of $400 each; also from John Parks, Paint Lick, one aged jack for $800; also one from Sam Phelps at $200, and one colt from Duck Datharage at $200, making 10 head of the best jack stock that ever left Madison county.—[Herald.]

—GEORGETOWN COURT.—About 125 cattle on the market. Only one lot of feeders offered and not sold. Yearling cattle brought 41 cents per pound; long yearlings, $20 to $25.40 per head. A good trade in horses; plugs bringing from $30 to $90. The mule trade was good—two year olds green and broke from $90 to $125. One pair work mules sold at $275.

—Dr. J. A. Williams made a good thing out of Silas Anderson's jack, Jack John. He gave $325 for him for his brother, who had given out the notion of buying by the time he reached Tennessee. The doctor then offered him for sale and soon got a purchaser at $550. A part of the sum, $125, was paid in a Knoxville lot, which he sold afterwards for $250, realizing finally $675 for the jack.

PUBLIC SALE:

VALUABLE PERSONALTY.

As Administrator of Adam Carpenter, deceased, I will,

ON TUESDAY APRIL 5, 1887,
Sell to the highest bidder all the personal property of said decedent. The property consists of Some fine Cows and Calves, 17 Steer Calves, twenty-five yearling Cattle, twenty stock Hogs, Horses, Farming Utensils, Household and Kitchen Furniture.

Sale to be at residence of deceased, near Hustonville, and to begin at 10 A. M.

TERMS: On Personalty, 3 months credit on notes with good security, payable in Bank and bearing interest from sale. For rent, money will be payable Jan. 1, 1888.

At the same time and place, as agent for Mrs. Bettie J. Carpenter, will rent some desirable grass land, adjacent to town, in four lots; also about two hundred and 50 acres on the Casey farm. F. M. Y.

BELGIUM.

AND 2 JACKS.

Will make the season of 1887 at my stables on the pike leading from Stanford to Crab Orchard, 3 miles from the latter place.

Belgium was brought from Ohio at two years old and is now 6. He is 3 1/2 Norman, a beautiful dapple gray, heavy mane and tail, of good style and action, and has proven himself a good breeder, several of his colts having been kept for stallions.

William James, Squire A. K. McKinney, who have his colts, are referred to.

The Jack, Nogue, is 2 years old, black, with white nose, was sired by a Madison jack. I don't know the stock, but know he is a good mule jack. He was sired by Black Hawk, he is quick and a good breeder.

Black Hawk is a solid black, 4 years old, 14 1/2 hands high, will show very fine colts this spring, a few last spring are very fine mules.

The horse will stand at $10 to insure a Colt 10 days old.

The Jacks at $5 to insure Colts 4 months old. Mare traded with or moved off means money due the colts stand good twelve months for season. 214-2m.

L. D. GARNER.

THE COMBINED STALLION,

SECOND JEWEL.

This fine, combined stallion will make the season of 1887 at my stable near, Shelby City, in Lincoln county, on the Shelby City & Knob Lick Turnpike road, at $15 the Season, or $20 to insure.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE.—Second Jewel is a blood bay, with black mane and tail, 15 hands 3 inches high, with fine style and action. He is 6 years old this spring, was sired by Lewis Cunningham's Jewel, he by the famous old Washington Denmark. First dam, Minnie, by McDonald's Halcorn; second dam by Wells' Crusader; third dam by a son of Davy Crockett; fourth dam a valuable old saddle mare, pedigree unknown. Mr. H. C. Farvin's Old Minnie, dam of Second Jewel, was a premium animal from a colt up to an aged mare. Second Jewel has been shown 31 times and won the sickle 31 times—defeated only three times.

I will also stand at the same stable, the fine young jack,

BLACK HAWK.

At $5 to insure a Live Colt. He is coal black, 14 hands 3 inches high. He was sired by Caldwell's Young Black Hawk, he by Velocipedes, he by Robertson's Sampson, he by Lump. Mammoth. His dam was by Stigall's Black Hawk; second dam was raised by Stiles Maxwell and was an imported jack. Money due when the colt is sold or mare parted with. Lien retained on all colts till season charges are paid.

Pasturage will be furnished at reasonable rates. Parting with mares forfeits the insurance.
